The new Web EDI app for tradelT users

Access order data from your smartphone or tablet 24/7!

(Vienna, June 12, 2015) Web EDI users now have the option of accessing their order data 24/7 even when they're not in the office. All it takes is our new mobile Web EDI app by EDITEL. It is available for easy download from the iTunes Store and the Google Playstore.

Product manager Klaus Schaffer elaborates on the benefits of this new app: "The new Web EDI app has been designed to take our clients' ability to place orders on the go to the next level. The app can be downloaded to any smartphone or tablet and allows users to check their order data even when they're not at their PCs. This is especially useful for urgent orders and it increases the efficiency of order processing and monitoring."

The mobile Web EDI app is currently available in German, English, Bulgarian, Croatian and Hungarian. More languages will be added in the future.
